Stars of the American Registry of Pathology Fascicles; Past, Present, and Future, in Partnership with Johns Hopkins Pathology

May 20-21, 2017
Chevy Chase Bank Conference Center
The Sheikh Zayed Tower
The Johns Hopkins Hospital
Baltimore, Maryland

This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.
Pathologists must confront ever changing classifications of neoplasms and newer treatments that are based on molecular mechanisms of diseases. Areas in which the field of medicine is changing revolve around lung tumors, soft tissue tumors, gastrointestinal stromal tumors, ovarian tumors, and pancreas neoplasms. Drawing on the expertise of past, present, and future Armed Forces Institute of Pathology (AFIP)/American Registry of Pathology (ARP) fascicle authors in partnership with Johns Hopkins Pathology, topics of interest to general pathologists will be presented. Discussions will feature soft tissue tumors, gastrointestinal stromal tumors, ovarian, pancreatic, and lung tumors. Additionally, there will be a discussion of Barrett’s esophagus and neoplasia incorporating 2016 guidelines from the American College of Gastroenterology, a discussion of stomach polyps, and a review of breast spindle cell lesions. This weekend update should be of interest to general surgical pathologists and pathology residents and fellows.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND
This activity is intended for pathologists and pathology residents.

OBJECTIVES
After attending this activity, the participant will demonstrate the ability to:
- Describe diagnostic clues for the most common soft tissue tumors.
- Recall the role of next generation sequencing in lung cancer.
- Discuss the explosion of new information concerning gastrointestinal stromal tumors.
- Analyze controversial topics in lung tumor pathology.
- Recognize breast mesenchymal lesions.
- Recall pitfalls in endometrial pathology.
- Apply increased diagnostic skills in gastroesophageal pathology.
- Classify solid tumors of the pancreas in a logical fashion.

ACCREDITATION STATEMENT
The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CREDIT DESIGNATION STATEMENT
The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 10 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

OTHER CREDITS
American Board of Pathology (SAM)
This course is approved for self-assessment module (SAM) credit by the American Board of Pathology and addresses the ACGME competencies of Medical Knowledge and Systems-Based Practice.

Contact Hours for Non-Physicians
The Johns Hopkins University has approved this activity for 10 contact hours for non-physicians.

POLICY ON SPEAKER AND PROVIDER DISCLOSURE
It is the policy of the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine that the speaker and provider globally disclose conflicts of interest. The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine OCME has established policies in place that will identify and resolve all conflicts of interest prior to this educational activity. Detailed disclosure will be made in the instructional materials.

EVALUATION AND OUTCOMES SURVEY
Post activity, an online evaluation form will be available to attendees to evaluate the activity and individual presentations and identify future educational needs. Upon completion of the evaluation, the learner must attest to the number of hours in attendance. Credits earned will be added to the learner’s transcript and immediately available for print.

A survey will be sent to all physician attendees within three months post activity to assist us in determining what impact this activity had on the learner’s practice.

EMERGENCY CALLS
On May 20–21, 2017, direct emergency calls to the Hopkins registration desk, (443) 287-5426. Messages will be posted for participants.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT
The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine fully complies with the legal requirements of the ADA and the rules and regulations thereof. Please notify us if you have any special needs.
