

The Department of Otolaryngology, Head and Neck Surgery presents

Johns Hopkins Dysphagia Symposium 2021

Virtual Meeting

September 18, 2021

For additional information and to register:

hopkinscme.cloud-cme.com/course/courseoverview?P=0&EID=32412

JOHNS HOPKINS
MEDICINE

DESCRIPTION

This course will provide speech language pathologists and dysphagia clinicians with an update on current practice patterns and evidence based research in the field of dysphagia covering adult and pediatric populations across multiple etiologies (neurogenic, head and neck cancer and gastroenterology).

HOT TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Effects of COVID-19 on Dysphagia Evaluation and Treatment
- Advances in Pharyngoesophageal Motility
- Optimizing the Use of Flexible Endoscopic Evaluation of Swallowing (FEES)
- Endoscopic Treatment of GERD and LPRD
- Dysphagia in the Tracheostomy Dependent Patient
- Dysphagia in Head and Neck Cancer
- Dysphagia in Neurodegenerative Conditions with Pediatric Origins
- Thyroidectomy and Dysphagia
- Anterior Cervical Spine Surgery and Dysphagia
- Psychogenic Dysphagia
- Updates in Pediatric Dysphagia
- Flexible Management of Zenker's Diverticulum
- LIVE Question and Answer Sessions

ACTIVITY DIRECTORS

Shumon Dhar, MD

Donna Tippet, MPH, MA, CCC-SLP

Kim Webster, MA, MS, CCC-SLP

JOHNS HOPKINS SPEAKERS

Rina Abrams, MD, CCC-SLP

Lee Akst, MD

Olaya Brewer Gutierrez, MD

Martin Brodsky, PhD, ScM, CCC-SLP

Ashley Davis, MS, CCC-SLP

David Eisele, MD

Angela Guarda, MD, FAED

Mouen Kashab, MD

Nicole Langton-Frost, MA, CCC-SLP, BCS-S

Maureen A. Lefton-Greif, PhD, CCC-SLP

Kyra Lehmann, MA, CCC-SLP

Kristine Pietsch, MA, CCC-SLP

Harry Quon, MD, MS

Margaret Skinner, MD

GUEST SPEAKERS

John Clarke, MD

Stanford University, Stanford, California

Joseph Murray, PhD, CCC-SLP

*Department of Veterans Affairs,
Ann Arbor, Michigan*

For additional information and to register:

<https://hopkinscme.cloud-cme.com/course/courseoverview?P=0&EID=32412>

ASHA CEUs are pending.

JOHNS HOPKINS
MEDICINE