The Johns Hopkins School of Medicine takes responsibility for the content, quality and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

Audience

Target Audience

This conference is designed for the continuing education of pediatricians, pediatric residents, family practice physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners and other pediatric and adolescent healthcare professionals.

Conference Description

The 45th Annual Florida Suncoast Pediatric Conference will provide valuable updates on current trends in pediatric medicine and its specialties. Designed especially for primary care physicians, advanced practice providers, and other healthcare providers who care for children, this exciting four-day conference will provide insights on how to address common pediatric medical problems in your practice. Make plans now to connect with nationally-recognized specialists in a broad array of pediatric fields on June 9-12, 2022, while enjoying the beautiful setting of The Ritz-Carlton, Sarasota.

Conference Objectives

After attending this activity, the learner will demonstrate the ability to:

- Explain the newest therapies and other guidelines relevant to the management of children with cystic fibrosis.
- Implement practical recommendations for the management of anxiety in children.
- Recognize and manage eating disorders in children.
